

Media contact:

Adam Pugh

adampugh@therockranch.com

770-633-4105

Easter Eggstravagaza at The Rock Ranch

Free Community Egg Hunt

THE ROCK, Ga. (March 21, 2015) – A free, outdoor egg hunt will be held Saturday, March 28 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at The Rock Ranch, a 1500-acre property in Upson County created by the late S. Truett Cathy. This event, called The Easter Eggstravaganza, will feature 40,000 plastic prize-filled eggs. Age-specific egg hunts will begin at staggered times at different locations across the ranch. Groups include: toddlers under 2 years old, ages 2 and 3, ages 4 to 6, ages 7 to 12 and ages 13 and older. There is no charge for the Easter Egg Hunt, and participants should bring their own baskets. Baskets and other items will also be sold in the gift shop.

Egg hunts begin at 12:45 p.m., but make sure to come early to join in the Easter festivities. There will be photo opportunities with the Easter Bunny beginning at 11 a.m. Guests are encouraged to bring their own cameras. The Easter Story will be presented at 12:30 p.m. by Greg Smith, pastor of New Life Church in Thomaston, GA. This event is a collaborative effort with local businesses who participated by sponsoring cases of prize-filled plastic eggs. The title sponsor is Zoe Pediatrics of Thomaston, GA.

The Rock Ranch “Cow-A-Bunga” Zip Lines will be open for guests who are not too chicken. These amazing attractions transport guests, at a treetop level, across the corn field and over ponds at speeds of up to 35 mph. A single guest may ride the fast lines (800 ft. long) for $8 or the long lines (1400 ft. long) for $12.75. The 50 ft. tall rock climbing wall is $5. The Rock Ranch will have 3 concessions locations offering treats such as Chick-fil-A sandwiches, kettle corn, chicken salad croissants, pizza and ice cream.

In response to feedback from guests, The Rock Ranch will be offering more fun attractions after the egg hunts and will allow families to stay until 4:30 p.m. For $8 guests may purchase a wrist band that allows them to ride the new carousel, the locomotive train, the pony rides and jump on the jumping pillow as much as they like. Guest may also purchase a ticket to enjoy just one attraction for $3. There is no cost to attend and enjoy the Eggstravaganza but the attractions will be an available option for those who wish to extend their day, this year.

The Rock Ranch Farm Market and Gifts location (open Monday through Saturday March to November) will be open during this event. The Farm Market offers local honey, homegrown, steroid-free, antibiotic-free premium beef, fresh fruit, garden vegetables and their famous homemade strawberry Ice Dream.

New Spring Season at The Rock Ranch

The Rock Ranch is offering a spring season this year. Called “Spring-A-Ding-Ding,” this new season offers families a fun day trip opportunity during spring break for only $10 per person. The ranch is open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday during select weeks in April. Visit www.therockranch.com for a calendar of events. Also receive updates at www.facebook.com/TheRockRanch.

###