Free Community Easter Egg Hunt at The Rock Ranch

Search for 45,000 Eggs at the Easter Eggstravaganza

THE ROCK, Ga. (March 8, 2016) – A free, outdoor egg hunt will be held Saturday, April 8 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at The Rock Ranch, a 1500-acre agritourism destination founded by the late S. Truett Cathy. This event, called Easter Eggstravaganza, will feature 45,000 plastic prize-filled eggs. Age-specific egg hunts will begin at staggered times at different locations across the ranch. Groups include: toddlers under 2 years old, ages 2 and 3, ages 4 to 6, ages 7 to 12 and ages 13 and older. There is no charge for the Easter Egg Hunt, and participants should bring their own baskets. Baskets and other items will also be sold in the gift shop.

Egg hunts begin at 12:45 p.m., but arrive early to participate in all the Easter festivities. There will be photo opportunities with the Easter Bunny beginning at 11 a.m. Guests are encouraged to bring their own cameras. The Easter Story will be presented at 12:30 p.m. by Kelly Kitchens, youth pastor at First Assembly of Griffin. This event is a collaborative effort with local businesses who supported by sponsoring cases of prize-filled plastic eggs. The title sponsor is Zoe Pediatrics of Thomaston, GA.

There is no entry fee to attend Easter Eggstravaganza and participate in the egg hunt. There will be additional offerings that are available for purchase including snacks and passes for attractions. The Rock Ranch will have multiple concession locations open serving treats such as Chick-fil-A sandwiches, kettle corn, boiled peanuts, pizza, and ice cream.

Wristbands will be available for purchase for $8/tax, allowing guests to enjoy the carousel, pony rides, locomotive train, and giant jumping pillow. Guests that would like to enjoy each attraction a la carte can purchase individual passes for $3/guest. More adventurous visitors can zoom down the zip line at $8/fast line and $12.75/long line or climb the 50 ft. rock wall for $5/tax.

The Rock Ranch Farm Market will be open during this event. The Farm Market offers local honey, homegrown, steroid-free, antibiotic-free premium beef, fresh fruit, garden vegetables and their famous homemade strawberry Ice Dream.
